How to Get Rid Of Skin Trouble

A Handsome Skin Book Free
That Will Guide
You.

So many people fuss in despair over stubborn skin afflictions that some rules laid down in connection with the use of S. S. S. for the blood will be of great value. These are outlined in a hand book, finely illustrated, of the many variations in skin troubles. It tells how to overcome them. If you have been fighting some blood trouble, some skin disease, call it eczema, lupus, psoriasis, malaria, or what you will, ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and you are then on the road to health. The action of this remarkable remedy is just as direct, just as positive, just as certain in its influence as that the sun rises in the East. It is one of those rare medical forces which act in the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies. The manner in which it dominates and controls the mysterious transference of rich, red, pure arterial blood for the diseased venous blood is marvelous. There is scarcely a community anywhere but what has its living example of the wonderful curative effects of S. S. S. Get a bottle of this famous remedy today, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar, write to Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 533 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not permit anyone to talk you into a substitute for S. S. S.

BABY'S HANDS Cured of Eczema by Saxo Salve

Connersville, Ind.—"My little girl suffered with eczema on her hands for nearly a year and reading about Saxo Salve one day I bought a tube and it helped her. After using two tubes my baby's hands are entirely well. It is a wonderful eczema remedy."—Mrs. E. P. Hook, Connersville, Ind.
If we can't cure your skin trouble with our Saxo Salve and Saxo Soap we will buy back the empty tube.

THE D. M. OGDEN CO.

Stylish Suits and Coats For Fall Just In

We have just received a number of new Suits and Coats for Fall and Winter and wish to say we are showing the largest assortment of clothes from which to select garments made to order that has ever been shown in Clarksburg.

Do not put off another day making selection of your needs, as these beautiful clothes are getting scarce in the markets, and each day we are compelled to withdraw numbers that will not be shown again.

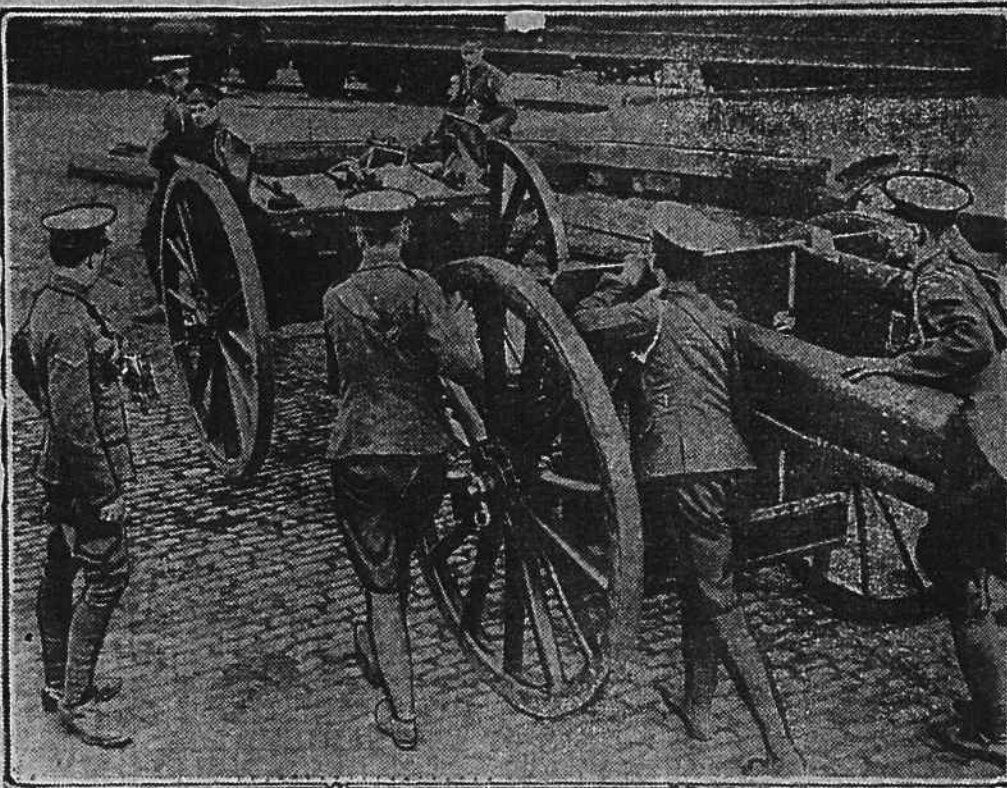

Prices on our Suits and Coats will remain unchanged as long as the materials on hand last. Later when new importations are to be used, naturally the prices will be more, and the range of selections will be much smaller.

We invite you to call and inspect the most beautiful line of Silks and Wool Dress Goods ever shown in the city.

(c) Underwood & Underwood.

During the past two or three weeks there have been scenes of tremendous military activity in England. This photo shows English royal field artillery hurrying their 15-pounder guns to the train for shipment to General French, who is in charge of the English forces on the continent.

BRAZIL IS GOOD CUSTOMER OF UNCLE SAM

Great Opportunities Are Afforded for Increasing His Export Trade There.

Of all the republics of South America that buy from the United States Brazil, next to Argentina, is the best customer in point of value. Incomplete statistics just received by the Pan American Union, Washington, D. C., show that during the year 1913 Brazil, next to Argentina, is the best of $326,500,000, of which total the United States furnished $12,290,000 worth. On its face this seems to make quite a good showing, but an examination of the other side of the account shows that the exporters of the United States ought to get busy. Brazil's exports for 1913 amounted to $315,165,000, of which total the United States took over $102,000,000 worth. In other words, the United States bought 32.2 per cent of all that Brazil sold, and sold to her only 15.7 per cent of all she bought. Why? It's up to the exporters of the country to say what's the answer.

Not Government's Fault. Evidently it is not the fault of the Brazilian government. That country shows its appreciation of its best customers by giving the United States preferential tariff rates in certain lines, by subsidizing steamship lines which ply between New York and Brazilian ports, and by sending from time to time this country on friendly missions some of her most distinguished national officials, journalists and business men to promote cordial relations and reciprocal commerce.

Notwithstanding these efforts of Brazil to promote commercial relations with the United States the figures for her 1913 foreign trade show that the eight countries which sold over $12,000,000 each to the big republic ranked as follows: United Kingdom, nearly $30,000,000; Germany, over $27,000,000; United States, $21,000,000; France, nearly $22,000,000; Argentina, over $24,000,000; Belgium, nearly $16,000,000; Portugal, over $14,300,000; and Italy, $13,365,000. Incidentally it may be noted that five of those countries, now more or less tangled up with the Pan European war, sold $200,000,000 worth of goods to Brazil in 1913. Further details show that there were eighteen countries each of which sold over $1,000,000 worth of goods to the Brazilians, while there were but thirteen which each took over that amount of her products.

Wants Are Varied.

What does Brazil buy? It may interest the manufacturers of the United States to know that in 1912, under the classification "manufactures," ready for consumption, she bought over $35,275,000 worth of engines, machinery, tools and hardware; over $35,000,000 worth of steel and iron manufactures; over $21,000,000 worth of cotton manufactures; over $14,250,000 worth of factures, automobiles and other vehicles; about $7,000,000 worth of chemicals, drugs, etc.; over $6,000,000 worth of paper manufactures; nearly $4,750,000 of guns and ammunition; and $4,000,000 of wool manufactures.

Furthermore it may be of interest to United States cotton manufacturers to know that under the classification of cotton manufactures imported by Brazil may be found piece goods, bleached, to the value of $1,460,000; unbleached, $255,000; prints, $94,000; dyed cottons, $3,235,000; other piece goods, $6,400,000. Practically all of the bleached, unbleached, dyed and printed goods came from the United Kingdom. Of other piece goods the imports from the United Kingdom were over one-half, with only a small amount from the United States.

Under carriages, automobiles, etc., there were 3,765 automobiles imported in 1912, worth nearly $5,380,000, about 17 per cent in value being from the United States. Automobile accessories were worth $1,300,000, of which a little over eight per cent came from the United States. Of railway cars, valued at $7,387,000, 50 per cent came from Belgium, 25 per cent from the United States and 13 per cent from the United Kingdom.

Food Products.

Under food products Brazil imported about $14,000,000 worth of wheat practically all from Argentina; wheat flour, about $12,000,000 worth, of which 53 per cent came from Argentina; 34 per cent from the United States and 10 per cent from Uruguay; codfish, about $5,500,000 worth, of which 43 per cent came from Newfoundland; 30 per cent from Norway; 14 per cent from Canada; 7 per cent from the United Kingdom, and less than 4 per cent from the United States. Of condensed milk, worth $1,400,000, nearly all came from Switzerland, while of hams and bacon 64 per cent came from the United Kingdom and only 24 per cent from the United States.

These are but a few of the striking facts about the foreign commerce of Brazil, which may be worth the consideration, in these bellicose times, of the manufacturers and exporters of the United States.

BIG MONEY OFFERED.

Thirteen thousand dollars in cash is offered in purses for the horse racing to be held at the Central West Virginia Fair, Clarksburg, September 1, 2, 3 and 4. All will be stake races for $1,000 each. Thousands of dollars more will be given for competitive exhibitions and for other track contests. The addition of new Floral and Machinery halls, has increased the premium offerings considerably.

It is impossible to state the yearly output of eau de cologne. One of the largest firms has 100,000 dozen bottles packed in storage ready for sale, and in the cellar, in casks, a quantity sufficient to fill 50,000 dozen additional bottles.

LEADING FIGURES IN EUROPEAN WAR.

If there is a Bismarck, a Von Moltke, a Napoleon, a McMahon, a Wellington, a Marston or a Roberts among the captains of the great armies now at war his identity still remains undisclosed.

The spectacular figures as they stand out are these:

The German Kaiser.

King George of England.

The Czar of Russia.

Premier Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, Vice-Admiral Jellicoe,

Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, and General Sir John French, of Great Britain.

General Helmuth Von Moltke, a nephew of the famous tactician of the Franco-Prussian war of 1871.

President Poincaré and Foreign Minister Viviani, of France. Count Van Bechtold, the Austrian prime minister, and the biggest man in the Austrian-Hungarian confederacy.

M. Sozonoff, the Russian prime minister.

King Peter and Pasitch, the prime minister of Serbia.

King Albert of the Belgians.

Some of these men may carry off the honors of war.

There are others in the various countries involved who may achieve worldwide distinction, but so far the hostilities have not progressed far enough to reveal his identity.
